Best Practice No. 1

1. Title: Fostering Social Service Engagement among Students

2. Objectives of the Practice:

a) Promote Student Engagement in Social Service:

Encourage students to actively participate in community service initiatives, such as flood relief fund collections and awareness campaigns.

b) Support Vulnerable Communities:

Provide assistance to flood-affected regions through fundraising and direct participation in rebuilding efforts.

Facilitate health and hygiene awareness, particularly for women, by conducting educational campaigns on menstrual hygiene and distributing sanitary napkins.

c) Enhance Community Involvement:

Strengthen the bond between the college and local communities, fostering a sense of empathy and responsibility among students.

Collaborate with NGOs to support marginalized groups, including children and elderly citizens, through various outreach programs.

3. The Context:

As our college is located in a rural area, we know that problems in rural and urban areas are different. Girls in rural areas need a lot of counseling. Also, the river Pravara flows two kilometers from the side of the college, so the village of Satral has to face flood situation. Many children became orphans during the Corona period, so there was a great need to support the destitute orphans in the society, there are problems in life of many families. This activity was taken to inculcate feeling in minds of the students that it is necessary to create happiness in lives of children with disabilities who live away from their parents.

In August 2019, heavy rains devastated Kolhapur and Sangli regions of Maharashtra. In response, our National Service Scheme volunteers initiated flood relief fund collection drive in Songaon-Satral village. Additionally, five college volunteers participated in a university-level camp in the Kolhapur-Sangli area. The Women Empowerment Cell organized a screening of film "Padman" to raise awareness about menstrual hygiene.

4. The Practice:

In line with fostering social service engagement among students, the college has undertaken several impactful initiatives. These include the collection of a flood relief fund, active involvement in rebuilding efforts for flood-prone residents and educational campaigns such as counselling on menstrual hygiene and awareness campaigns in nearby schools. Additionally, the college has celebrated cultural exchanges like Rakshabandhan with Snehalaya and inclusive festivals such as Rang Panchami, while also supporting senior citizens through the Rashtriya Vayoshri Yojana (RVY). These initiatives underscore the college's commitment to nurturing a sense of community service and civic responsibility among its student body.

1. Collection of Flood Relief Fund

In August 2019, heavy rains severely impacted the Kolhapur and Sangli regions of Maharashtra, causing widespread disruption. Responding to this crisis, the National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers from our college swiftly initiated a relief fund collection drive in the Songaon-Satral village to support the flood-affected communities. The college staff mobilized efforts to raise funds from stakeholders, resulting in the collection of Rs. 16,550. This amount was deposited into the Flood Relief Fund account of Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune. The selfless dedication of these volunteers was highly appreciated by the local community, exemplifying their commitment to aiding those in need during crises.

2. Helping Hands of Satral College Students Towards Flood-Prone Residents

Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune organized a university-level camp in the Kolhapur-Sangli area to assist residents of flood-affected villages in their rebuilding efforts. Held from August 22-28, 2019, the camp saw active participation from five volunteers from our college. These volunteers undertook significant social responsibilities, contributing to the re-establishment of schools, hospitals, and homes in the affected villages, demonstrating the college's dedication to community service and rebuilding efforts.

3. Counseling to School Girls on Use and Benefits of Sanitary Napkins by Women Empowerment Cell

The Women Empowerment Cell organized a screening of the movie Padman to raise awareness about health issues, particularly menstrual hygiene, among girl students. The protagonist's journey in the film sensitized the audience to the importance of menstrual hygiene and the need for affordable sanitary solutions. The initiative aimed to promote the use of sanitary napkins and the utilization of vending and disposal machines. Additionally, ten girl students were engaged to extend this awareness campaign in nearby schools, under the guidance of Dr. Kalpana Palghadmal, Ms. Ashwini Salunke, and Dr. Sujata Lamkhade, further spreading the message of menstrual health.

4. Awareness Campaign in Nearby Schools

Ten girl students from the college conducted an awareness campaign in nearby schools, interacting with students and teachers about menstrual hygiene and the importance of using sanitary napkins. This initiative aimed to reach a broader audience, initiating crucial conversations about menstrual health in educational institutions and underscoring the college's commitment to societal issues and fostering a culture of health and empowerment.

5. Rakshabandhan Celebration with Snehalaya

In a unique cultural exchange, 50 students and teachers visited Snehalaya, a non-profit organization supporting marginalized populations. Students tied rakhis around the wrists of Snehalaya children, fostering a sibling-like bond and highlighting traditional values. Additionally, the college community contributed Rs. 7,500 to purchase books for competitive examinations, supporting the educational aspirations of these children. This practice combined cultural celebration with social service, promoting empathy and active citizenship among students.

6. Inclusive Rang Panchami Celebration

To promote empathy and understanding, specially-abled students from Padmashri Dr. Vitthalrao Vikhe Patil School for the Deaf and Dumb in Babhaleshwar were invited to the college for a Rang Panchami celebration. The college organized transportation and refreshments for these students, creating an inclusive event. The celebration included a discussion session where special students shared their experiences, fostering a sense of community and inclusivity. This practice was unique in promoting social cohesion and sensitivity among students through shared joy and understanding.

7. Assistance to Senior Citizens through Rashtriya Vayoshri Yojana (RVY)

As part of the 75th Amrit-Mahotsav of independent India, camps were organized in Ahmednagar district under the supervision of MP Dr. Sujay Vikhe Patil. These camps provided eligible elderly individuals, particularly those in the Below Poverty Line (BPL) category, with physical aids and assisted-living tools. Involving students in the distribution of aids and interactions with the elderly instilled a sense of social responsibility and respect among them, aligning with the college's mission to foster social service engagement.

5. Evidence of Success:

- Under Campaign of Flood relief Fund Collection, Students and staff of ACS College collected Rs 16550 and deposited to the account of Flood Relief Fund, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune.

आपणांस, आपल्या परीवारास स्नेहालय परीवारातर्फे दिपोत्सवाच्या हार्दिक हार्दिक शुभेच्छा. ईश्वराने आपले व आपल्या परीवाराचे जीवन सुखी, आनंदी, निरोगी ठेवावे, हीच ईश्वराधना स्नेहालय परीवार दीपोत्सवाच्या निमित्त्याने करीत आहे.

दिपोत्सवात आपण असीम आनंदाची अनुभूती घेतो. प्रत्येक घरात फटाके, खाऊ, अत्तर, नवे कपडे अशी रेलचेल असते. परंतु यावेळी आपल्याच समाजातील अनेक बंधु-भगिनी, खास करून बालके या आनंदापासून वंचित असतात. त्यात विविध संस्थांमधून राहणाऱ्या अनाथ-निराधार-एड्सग्रस्त-मतीमंद-मुक बधीर-अंध-अपंग आणि ईतर व्याधीग्रस्त बालके, मनोरुग्ण व अत्युच्चारित महिला यांचा समावेश असतो. ज्यांना कुटूंबाने आणि समाजाने नाकारले, त्यांना अपेक्षा असते कोणीतरी त्यांच्या आस्तित्वाची दखल घेण्याची. प्रेमाने एखादा शब्द बोलण्याची. कोणीतरी वात्सल्याने डोक्यावरून हात फिरविण्याची. आपण दीपदानाच्या, माणुसकी जपण्याच्या या अभियानात उस्फूर्त सहभागी झालात. समाजातील वंचितांसाठी सहयोग देऊन दीपोत्सवात सामाजिक जाणीवेचे जागरण केले. या प्रकाशाच्या दानाबद्दल आपली कृतज्ञता स्नेहालय परीवार व्यक्त करीत आहे.
