Report on 'Vachan Prerna Din'
Celebrating Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam's Birth Anniversary

Objectives of the Programme:

1. To create awareness about the life and achievements of APJ Abdul Kalam among students and stakeholders.
2. To commemorate APJ Abdul Kalam and understand the significance of his reading habits.

The Central Library celebrated Reading Inspiration Day on October 15, 2018, at 10.30 a.m. in the Seminar Hall. Dr. Anant Kedare from the Department of Hindi was the keynote speaker, and the event was chaired by Acting Principal Dr. Sopan Shingote. To honour Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam's birth anniversary, "Vachan Prerna Din" featured a book exhibition and lectures. Librarian Dr. Anil Pawar spoke about the importance of "Vachan Prerna Din" and how Dr. Abdul Kalam's love for reading, starting in childhood, helped him become a great scholar. After his speech, the dignitaries garlanded a portrait of Dr. Kalam. Dr. Anant Kedare then emphasised how reading enriches individuals.

Report on

National Mathematics Day and Science Association Inauguration Program

On December 22nd, our college celebrated National Mathematics Day and launched the Science Association, accompanied by an engaging guest lecture. The event took place at the Virtual Learning Centre and was attended by respected teachers, a special guest, and eager students. The guest speaker for the event was Mr. T. D. Kumkar, an Assistant Professor in Mathematics at Arts, Science, and Commerce College, Rahata. The lecture was conducted on December 22, 2018, at 02:00 p.m. in the Virtual Learning Centre of the college. The talk focused on the synergy between mathematics and science, demonstrating how they help us understand the world around us. Mr. T. D. Kumkar explained various mathematical concepts and their applications in science and technology.

Following the lecture, we officially launched the Science Association, underscoring our commitment to making science education more exciting in our college. Ms. Ashwini Salunke, Head, Department of Mathematics, introduced the Chief Guest. Dr. G. R. Pandhare, Head, Department of Chemistry, presided over the function. The event sparked interesting conversations, where we shared thoughts and learned new insights about the importance of math and science in our lives. It inspired many of us to consider careers in these fields.

Overall, the National Mathematics Day and Science Association Inauguration Guest Lecture was a significant success, highlighting our college's dedication to excellence in math and science education. The I/C principal of the college, Dr. S. N. Shingote, Vice-principal Prof. J. R. Singer, and all the teaching and non-teaching staff provided valuable support. 58 students were present for the programme.

REPORT

EVERYDAY APPLICATIONS OF A MULTIMETER

On 09th Feb 2019, the Department of Physics organized a training program on "Everyday Applications of a Multimeter." The program aimed to educate both teaching and non-teaching staff about the important uses of a multimeter in day-to-day life. A total of 6 teaching staff and 20 non-teaching staff actively participated in the training.

Dr. N. S. Kanhe commenced the event with an introductory session. Guest lecturer Mr. G. T. Shirole, PVP College Loni, emphasized the need and importance of using a multimeter, underlining its role in preventing electrical accidents. He highlighted the program's role in promoting safety awareness and equipping participants to ensure electrical safety at home. Furthermore, he emphasized the importance of continuous learning and adherence to safety protocols for a safer environment. Hands-on training sessions followed the guest lecture, allowing participants to apply their newfound knowledge in the Physics Department.

Mrs. B. U. Rajdeo, co-convener of the Department of Physics, extended gratitude to all involved for their contributions to the program's success.
