A webinar on Research Methodology in chemical sciences was held virtually on 26th March 2021 for the students and faculty members where 71 participants were present. It was organized by the Department of Chemistry in collaboration with IQAC, Arts, Commerce and science College Satral. The resource person was Dr. Ajay H. Bansode, Research Scholar, National Chemical Laboratory, Pune. Initially Prof. Dr. S. S. Gholap, Head Department of Chemistry explained the purpose behind organizing A webinar on research methodology in chemical sciences. He introduced the speaker and welcome all the participants.

The resource person Dr. Ajay H. Bansode said that, research should establish new facts and reach new conclusions, while research methodology constitutes the designing of experiments, its implementation, constructing hypothesis and drawing conclusions. He emphasized the importance of good writing and commitment. Another very important topic he touched was Research ethics, fraud and Plagiarism, and the need for honesty as the age old value. It was an enriching experience for all. Dr. V. A. Kadnor , Assistant Professor department of chemistry expressed the vote of thanks.
