Subject: Permission for Participation in Flood Relief Fund Collection

Dear Madam,

I am writing to seek your kind permission to participate in the flood relief camp organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of our college. The initiative aims to support the rebuilding efforts in the Kolhapur-Sangli area, which was affected by severe flooding. Savitribai Phule Pune University has organized a camp from August 22nd to 28th, 2019, for this purpose. Five volunteers from our college, including Wani Avinash Macchindra, Vikhe Praveen Shivaji, Vikhe Nilesh Namdev, Harde Prafull Babasaheb, and Harde Prashant Bhausahab, have already contributed significantly to the reconstruction of schools, hospitals, and homes in the flood-affected villages.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely,

Thanking you,

On July 7, 2019, the NSS Unit organized a Water Awareness Rally to educate the community about the importance of water conservation. Students participated enthusiastically, carrying banners and posters with messages on saving water. They marched through the main streets of the town, distributing pamphlets that highlighted simple ways to conserve water in daily life. The event received a positive response from the local residents, who appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers. The rally successfully raised awareness about the critical need to save water and protect our natural resources. 80 volunteers were participated in the rally.

Report on World AIDS Day Rally

Date:- 1/12/2019

On December 1, 2019, the NSS Unit organized a rally to mark World AIDS Day. The event aimed to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS and reduce stigma associated with the disease. Students and volunteers marched through the main streets, holding banners and distributing informative pamphlets. The rally emphasized the importance of regular testing, safe practices, and support for those living with HIV. The event was well-received by the community and helped to spread important messages about prevention and compassion. 54 volunteers were participated in the programme.

Report on Distribution of Stationery to Needy Students

Name of Event	Distribution of Stationery to Needy Students
Objective	To support the education of underprivileged students by providing necessary stationery.  To inculcate values of empathy and social responsibility among NSS volunteers.
Date	28/12/2019
No. of Participants	50

On December 28, 2019, the NSS Unit conducted a stationery distribution drive aimed at supporting economically disadvantaged students. The event was held in NSS Winter Camp at Kanadagaon village. Principal Dr. Waje, Principal, B. Ed College, Loni, presided over the function. The event commenced at 10 AM with an inauguration speech by Dr. Waje Mam, emphasizing the importance of education and community support. Following the speech, volunteers began distributing stationery items to the gathered students. Over 50 students from various local schools benefitted from the drive. The stationery distribution drive was a significant success, fulfilling its objectives and leaving a positive impact on both the recipients and the volunteers. The NSS Unit plans to organize similar activities in the future to continue supporting the educational needs of the community.

Name of the Program	Eco-friendly Rangoli Competition
Date	07/01/2020
Name of Guest	Mrs. S.V.Kolekar Madam
Name of Coordinator	Dr. Kalpana Palghadmal
No. of Participants	101

On January 7th 2020, the College of Arts, Commerce and Science in Satral hosted an Eco-friendly Rangoli Competition. Students from the college and AnandGurukul School, Satral, participated in this event. The Chief Guest, Mrs. S.V. Kolekar, delivered an enlightening lecture on the importance and techniques of creating eco-friendly rangolis. She emphasized that such initiatives not only celebrate traditional art forms but also contribute to environmental conservation by avoiding harmful materials. The Eco-friendly Rangoli Competition played an important role in promoting social harmony and addressing caste discrimination in society. Mrs. Jayshree Singar highlighted this in her speech, urging students to draw inspiration from Mrs. S.V. Kolekar's address. Students could create rangolis individually, in pairs, or in groups. Participants were informed that no materials would be provided by the college and were encouraged to use eco-friendly materials from their own resources. The Eco-friendly Rangoli Competition at the College was a memorable event that combined the celebration of traditional art with the promotion of environmental and social awareness. The inspiring speeches and enthusiastic participation underscored the importance of such initiatives in fostering a more inclusive and sustainable society.

The program concluded with vote of thanks by Ms. A.C. Salunke, who expressed gratitude to all participants, guests and organizers. She emphasized the importance of continuing such eco-friendly practices in daily life.

On 27th July 2019, the NSS Unit organized a Vrukshadindi Rally to promote tree plantation and environmental awareness. Students and faculty participated enthusiastically, carrying banners and chanting slogans about the importance of trees. The rally started from the college campus and passed through nearby areas, attracting attention and support from the local community. During the rally, saplings were distributed to participants and residents. The event aimed to encourage people to plant more trees and protect the environment. It was a successful and inspiring initiative, highlighting the crucial role of trees in our ecosystem. 36 volunteers participated in the rally.
