Respected Sir,

The Department of Mathematics has decided to organize a guest lecture on "Linear Algebra." In this regard, we kindly request your permission to hold the Lecture on Monday, 24th April 2023. The purpose of this guest lecture is to provide students with a deeper understanding of the fundamental concepts and applications of Linear Algebra. This lecture will be useful to the students by enhancing their knowledge and skills.

Thanking you,

Respected Madam,

It gives us an immense pleasure to invite you as a guest speaker on behalf of Mathematics Department of our college. We are organising a lecture on "Linear Algebra". We would appreciate it if you address our students so they can benefit from your knowledge and experience. The lecture will be held on Monday 24/04/2023, at 10 a.m. The lecture is organised in Hall No.F-1 of the college. We will be much obliged by your presence at the programme. Kindly confirm your availability as soon as possible so we can make arrangements accordingly.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Report on Guest Lecture on Linear Algebra

Date: 24th April 2023

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Venue: Hall No.F-1

On April 24, 2023, the Mathematics Department organised a guest lecture on Linear Algebra. Ms. Tambe began with an introduction to the fundamental concepts of linear algebra, including vectors, matrices, and linear transformations. She emphasized the importance of these concepts in solving systems of linear equations, which form the backbone of many scientific computations.

The key highlights of the lecture was the discussion on Eigen values and eigenvectors, vector spaces, subspaces, basis and dimensions, dimension, rank and nullity, and linear transformations and matrices and their applications in various fields such as physics, computer science, and engineering. She discussed how these methods are employed in linear algebra to facilitate advancements in various areas. The use of real-life examples made these complex topics more accessible and engaging.

The lecture concluded with a Q&A session, where students had the opportunity to further clarify their doubts and gain additional insights into linear algebra. Twenty one students participated in the lecture.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Ms. Tambe for sharing her expertise with us and to all the students.

Expert lecture on “Use of ICT Tools for Project Presentation”

Report of the Program

The use of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) tools in the classroom is essential for modern education. Understanding the issues and challenges related to the use of ICT tools in teaching and learning can help educators overcome obstacles and become proficient technology users. In this context, the Department of Chemistry at our college organized an expert lecture on "Use of ICT Tools for Project Presentation" for Postgraduate Students on January 10th, 2023, in the seminar hall. Dr. Anil Gagare from Computer Science College, Loni, was the chief guest and guest of honor. In the introductory speech, Dr. A. S. Waghmare, Head, Department of Chemistry, welcomed and introduced the chief guest. Dr. Anil Gagare provided comprehensive information on using ICT tools for project presentations and explained their benefits. He highlighted that ICT tools help develop new skills, enhance creativity, and stimulate the development of imagination and initiative. A question-and-answer session followed, where Dr. Gagare addressed all the students' queries. The Vice-Principal Dr. D. N. Gholap presided over the programme. He encouraged students to make greater use of ICT tools for academic work. Miss D. D. Agarkar anchored the program, and Dr. V. A. Kadnor expressed the vote of thanks. The event was attended by 71 students from undergraduate and postgraduate classes, along with the teaching staff.

Report on Library Orientation Program

The Library Orientation Program aimed to familiarise participants with the library's resources, services, and policies, empowering them to utilize its facilities effectively to support their academic and research pursuits. Following issues were discussed in the orientation program.

1. Introduction to the Library:

- The session commenced with an introduction to the library's mission, vision, and objectives.
- Participants were acquainted with the layout of the library, including different sections and resources available.

2. Library Services:

- A detailed overview of the various services offered by the library was provided.
- This included borrowing privileges, interlibrary loan services, reference assistance, and access to electronic resources.

3. Online Catalogue and Database Access:

- Participants were guided through accessing the library's online catalogue to search for books, journals, and other resources.
- Demonstrations were conducted on how to access and utilize electronic databases and journals subscribed by the library.

4. Library Policies:

- An explanation of library policies regarding borrowing, renewals, fines, and code of conduct was provided.
- Participants were encouraged to adhere to these policies for the smooth functioning of the library.

5. Reference and Research Assistance:

- Participants were introduced to the reference desk, where they could seek librarian assistance for their research queries.
- Guidance was provided on utilising library resources for research projects and assignments.

6. Library Tours:

- Guided library tours were conducted to familiarise participants with different sections, collections, and facilities.
- Participants were shown how to navigate the library effectively to locate materials of interest.

Report of Online Workshop on NLIST On the occasion of the birth anniversary of Dr S. R. Rangnathan

Objectives:

- To familiarise participants with the features and benefits of NLIST.
- To provide hands-on experience in accessing and utilising NLIST resources effectively.
- To highlight the significance of NLIST in academic research and scholarly activities.

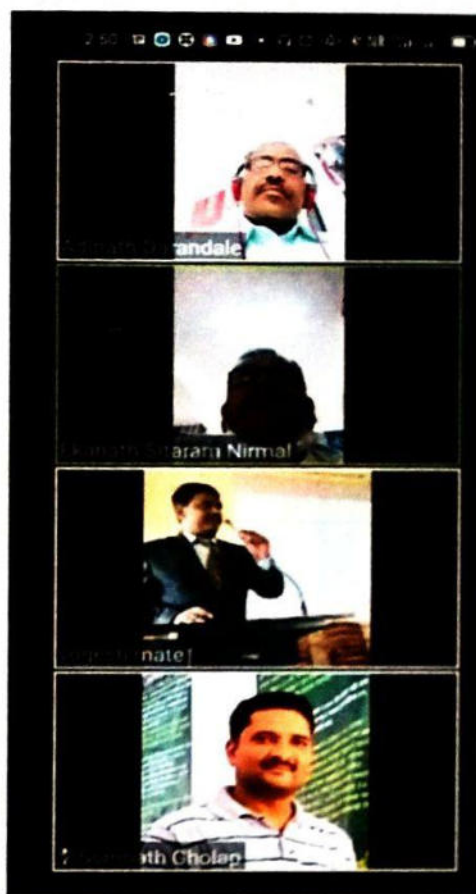

The workshop commenced at 1:30 PM. and was conducted via Zoom, accommodating participants from diverse academic backgrounds. The session began with an inaugural address by the Head of the Department of Library and Information Science, emphasising the importance of NLIST in supporting research and academic endeavours. The Central Library of Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Satral, organised an online workshop via Zoom on August 12, 2021, to raise awareness about the NLIST (National Library and Information Services Infrastructure for Scholarly Content). The College Principal led this one-day workshop as a platform for sharing knowledge and enhancing skills. Seventy participants, including faculty members and students, participated in the workshop. The workshop, which lasted for two hours, was designed to give participants practical experience in effectively utilising NLIST resources. Mr. Yogesh Mate, serving as the resource person, provided valuable guidance throughout the session, offering practical strategies for navigating and accessing valuable resources through the NLIST platform.

During his speech, the College Principal shared insightful information about NLIST, emphasising its importance in academic research and scholarly pursuits. His remarks gave participants a better understanding of the relevance and usefulness of NLIST resources in the educational field. After the workshop, Prof. Eknath Nirmal, representing the central library, thanked all participants for their active engagement and contribution to the event's success. This gesture recognised all attendees' combined efforts and highlighted the academic community's collaborative atmosphere.

USE OF ICT TRAINING FOR BOTANY STUDENTS- REPORT

Introduction:

The Department of Botany organised ICT training for Botany students. The training session is scheduled to take place on 23rd August, 2020, at 11:00 AM. Total 42 students participated in this training.

The provision of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) training is essential for college students to augment their technical competencies, enhance academic performance, and equip themselves for the employment market. This training program encompasses a comprehensive range of ICT components, including foundational computer skills, the utilization of mobile educational applications, and platforms such as Google Meet, Zoom, and Webex. Additionally, the training includes the study of specialized biological software used for the identification of plants and diseases, molecular studies (including Proteomics and Genomics), and data analysis.

Objectives:

- Develop skill in using essential IT applications.
- To study the types of ITC tools use for learning.
- Learn the fundamentals of various software/Apps.
- Understand the principles of cyber security.
- Acquire skills in IT tools.

Certification:

- Certificates will be awarded to all students who successfully complete the course

Benefits:

- Enhanced technical skills and knowledge.
- Improved academic performance through the use of ICT tools.
- Better preparation for technology-driven job markets.
- Increased confidence in using and understanding technology.

This ICT training program aims to equip college students with the necessary skills. Total 42 students actively participated in this training program

Report on Maxima Software Guest Lecture

Date: 29th February 2020

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Venue: English Language Lab,
Arts, Commerce, and Science College,
Satral.

On 29th February 2020, a guest lecture on Maxima software was held at the English Language Lab. The lecture was conducted by Mr. P. S. Momale, from the Department of Mathematics at Padmashri Vikhe Patil College of Arts, Science, and Commerce, Pravaranagar, who is an expert in the field. The purpose of the lecture was to introduce students to the various applications of Maxima software. 34 students were participated in the lecture.

Mr. Momale began the lecture by providing an overview of Maxima software and its significance in various fields such as Mathematics, Engineering, and Science. He demonstrated the practical applications of Maxima through interactive examples, showcasing its capabilities in symbolic computation, algebraic manipulation, and solving mathematical equations.

Throughout the lecture, Mr. Momale engaged the audience with his insightful explanations and demonstrations. He encouraged active participation and addressed any queries raised by the students, ensuring a comprehensive understanding of the topic.

The lecture concluded with a Q&A session, where students had the opportunity to further clarify their doubts and gain additional insights into Maxima software. The lecture was informative and inspiring. It provided students with valuable knowledge about the software and its potential applications in their academic pursuits.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Mr. Momale for sharing his expertise with us and to all the students who actively participated in the event.

A Report of National Librarian Day And Orientation on e-resources

Objectives of the Programme:

1. To create awareness about Librarian Day among students and stakeholders.
2. To remember the work of Dr. S R Rangnathan
3. Teach the Use of Educational E-Resources
4. Ethics of using E-Resources

The Department of Library and Information Science at the Pravara Rural Education Society's Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Satral, commemorated Librarian Day on August 9, 2019, at 10:30 a.m. in the seminar hall. Dr. J. R. Singar, the acting principal, presided over the event. The program, organized to mark the birth anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, featured various workshops and lectures. Dr. J. R. Singar, the keynote speaker and acting principal of the college, highlighted the significance of the occasion. At the commencement of the event, Librarian Dr. Anil Pawar elaborated on the importance of Librarian Day and its celebration on Dr. Ranganathan's birthday. He noted that National Librarian Day is observed annually on August 12 to honor Dr. S. R. Ranganathan who is revered as the father of library science in India. Dr. Ranganathan's lifelong dedication to the library profession has left an enduring legacy.

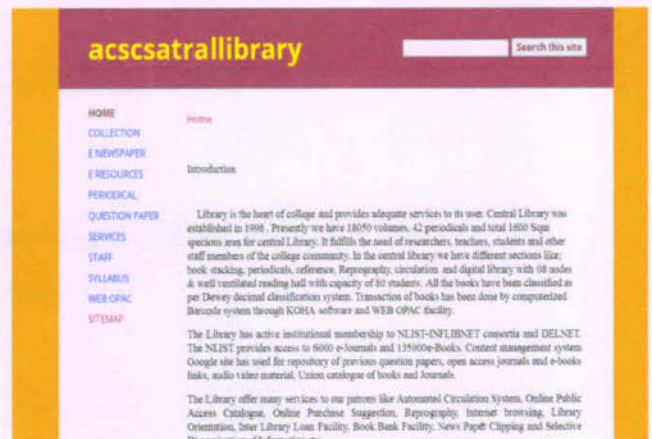

In conjunction with Dr. S. R. Ranganathan's birth anniversary, the ACS College Library organized a library orientation program focusing on the use of e-resources for the staff. During this program, Librarian Dr. Anil B. Pawar provided comprehensive information on accessing e-resources, the ethical considerations involved, and shared insights on various educational websites. He covered platforms such as EPG Pathshala, Shodhganga, Shodhgangotri, PDF Drive, OATD, DOAJ, DOAB, VIDVAN, NLIST, NDLI, NPTEL, NISCARE, Rare Book Room, E Sahitya, and Marathi Vishwakosh.

The institute hosted a special lecture on computer applications on January 17, 2019, at 10:00 AM in the seminar hall. We were privileged to have Mr. S.R. Gagare as our expert speaker, who delivered an insightful lecture on computer applications to an audience of 52 students. During his presentation, he emphasized that computer applications are software programs designed to address real-world challenges. He delved into the historical progression of computer applications from their inception to the contemporary applications we interact with daily, highlighting prominent programming languages such as Python, Java, C++, and JavaScript. He also expounded on the Software Development Lifecycle (SDLC), elucidating the comprehensive process of software creation, spanning from initial planning to ongoing maintenance. He drew comparisons between the conventional Waterfall method and the modern Agile method. Furthermore, he explored current trends and future prospects in Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Machine Learning (ML), underscoring their applications in innovations such as chatbots and recommendation systems.

On Wednesday, October 24, 2018, ACS College Satral hosted a guest lecture on cyber security delivered by Mr. S.D. Gujar. The event was attended by 58 students. The primary objective of the lecture was to enlighten the audience on the critical importance of safeguarding digital assets and personal information in the contemporary digital landscape. Mr. S. D. Gujar provided a comprehensive overview of cyber security, underscoring its significance in defending against online threats and attacks. He stressed the necessity for both individuals and organizations to remain vigilant and adopt proactive measures to mitigate risks. During the lecture, various prevalent cyber threats, including malware, phishing, and data breaches, were examined. Mr. Gujar elucidated how these threats can compromise sensitive information and disrupt operational activities, thereby urging the audience to exercise caution when utilizing digital platforms. The lecture also concentrated on best practices for ensuring data security, such as employing strong passwords, utilizing encryption techniques, and performing regular software updates.
